

The Musical Dynasphere

a number of these wonderful devices have been manifested to enhance understanding and spirituality

The development of this device is regarded as a major necessity in the evolution of all Mankind at this time. The introduction of this scientific and spiritual knowledge has been nurtured and safeguarded to bring about greater evolution of humanity as a whole.

The current manifestation, just as Keely's earlier models, had much input from celestial hosts or consciousnesses of those gone before us. The following excerpts from various readings, as given through Dawn Stranges, blessing this project give some idea of its scope, beingness and Cosmic importance to us all. The time has arrived for the human species to begin recognizing and assuming the responsibilities of a divinely inspired and motivated species.

Goethe: Dearest Souls, I give greetings. We are extremely pleased with your work. We, of course, stand by for your needs. Please come to understand that your collective will, Heart and Head forces are manifesting a Universal Node of time/space/dimension which is appointed by Destiny. Please remind yourselves that you are giving voice, life and substantiation to the music written by the Universe. The song has been written in the planet and sky using an invisible, powerful code. Each of you has the code's meaning written within your spirit. Let the knowingness of this supersede any concerns which may alight.

Let each step and decision be one permeated with the spirit of enlightenment in its many forms. Be mindful of the vibration of the organism as you build her. She is to be considered a being of great power and heart. She will guide you if you ask and listen to her. Keep peacefulness in your soul. Much Love and Many Blessings.

Table of Light: Dear Souls, we have a message to you at this point in the evolution of our joint project. It pleases us greatly that the beautiful Musical Sphere evolves with such a healthy balance of ego force amongst you. The environment is a good and nourishing one for this project; like a good and loving home for a child. When this exists, concerns about external, negative influences can greatly be reduced because of the Force of Love and dedication. Let this continue to guide your every step, and the rest will be taken care of by unseen hands and hearts. Go and work in Peace, feeling our Love and assistance.

Archangel Michael: Dear ones, at this time I wish to communicate more of the bigger picture of this device. It has been conceived and developed as a joint venture of many great earthly and cosmic spirits who have come together in the spirit of it. That is, to accomplish it, devoid of attachment to outcome. This has allowed the Etheric energy to flow in a most healthy way for all who have participated in detachment. This includes all who have actively contributed as you well know. There is to be no concern for the outcome of either the individuals, their involvement, or the dynasphere. All will flow, and since it is according to Universal Flow, it will be beautiful, and as a child, in ways not even conceived yet.

By all means, flow with the current of the needs of the times, and you will be where you need to be when you need to be there. This may surprise, you, but you don't need to be doing anything different. This in itself is a big lesson.

The Dynasphere is making its appearance now to become as a vehicle for enlightenment of mankind – a teaching instrument. There are realms and realms of physics, science and understandings that have not even been thought of. The Dynasphere will support the way to their introduction, adoption and use. It manifests vibratory dynamics that originate from The One Whole Law.

Einstein: Our lot as scientists and metaphysicists is to continue to work with the Light and guidance of a greater, wiser source to come to understand the tricks and puzzles that create confusion and false beliefs in us, all because of our own lack of vision. There is no blame attached to our blindness, as it is part of the human condition we must acknowledge and about which we must seek help from Higher Sources. By so doing, we fulfill our birthright: to come to understand that there are Beings, consciousnesses, dimensions and forces we cannot perceive with physical senses, and to seek and eventually find divine insight enough to mix humanity with divine energy. This, then is the purpose of science and life.

Keely: Dear ones, the granite slab is positioned just fine. When it is positioned with an investment of feeling, that is a form of Love consciousness (as it has been), then the placement becomes part of the One. This is because the Law of One operates along strings of Love consciousness which reach far, connecting time/space/event nodes along the path of positive evolution. One might call this Destiny, or Universal Will, but it is enabled by the selflessness of capable human interaction with the Spirit and Elemental Worlds.

Gaia: Dear seekers, these three forces (electricity, gravity and Mind) are quite connected, as are many things, inextricably. Let us frame the answer around the workings of your Musical Sphere. The forces described above are interwoven so that the staging of conditions to focalize etheric density, combined with karmic forces, Love and Gaiac Forces, conspire (breathe together) to form a Neutral Center or point of Etheric Implosion that evacuates molecular components, creating a situation of extreme potential power. The potential power is realized by natural evolution as dictated by the lines of travel and intersection of the forces called upon by the inherent construct.

Let us talk about the nature of that construct. We have lines of transit of the forces going in and out that create acceleration of etheric dynamics. Included in the list are: nodal frequency acceleration of the time/space dimensional fabric of the Universe shifting toward the key range that supports Harmony. The Harmony referred to includes advancement toward enlightened coexistence with all Forces and Beings also supporting Harmony. Each contribution attracts and cohesively combines with kindred manifestations of Light in variant forms. This is the basis of "karma", gravity and evolution toward the One. Each of these represents a "rib" or line of force curved to circumscribe a torroid. Thus, each complies with and creates the natural and most efficient means of moving its evolution toward the One. The One is not a state of rest or quietude, but quite the opposite: a state of dynamic movement and orchestration. When a force field or its matrix is established in a form that naturally creates harmonics that also conform to the same configuration, even if offset in time or space, then this dynamic is created. If enough force is focalized, the fields or matrices created will be quite strong and create a stabilizing influence in surrounding conditions. This is true of thought patterns, consciousness evolution, etheric communication, etheric work, and gravity.

Sophia, Goddess of Wisdom: Dear students, The Whole Law is the One, and basis for all Science. All Science is based on combining, relationships, proportions and order. These are all served by the consciousness state of Love, or more precisely, the interplay of forces which are configured by the Consciousness of Love. Therefore, if Love is the prime condition or consciousness surrounding one, the ethers and other forces (including the Elemental Beings, etc.) will configure in such a way that increased order, and healthier ambient energy will become manifested. Even if conditions fail the One who embraces Love, the ramifications will be minimized by the outward focus developed by the Love.

Soon there will be shown some replicatable, "scientific" evidence as to the power of Love. This will begin to make it "safe" for many more to ascribe to such ideas as the "Whole Law". When one lays aside their concerns about his/herself, and focuses on helping and Loving others, many beautiful things happen. Force fields take a sort of "red shift" toward order and wholeness. Love establishes centropy. When your science reaches the point of acceptance of the very basics of this point, then great strides will begin to be seen in areas such as you are developing.
